How to get here by car

The easiest way to get to our site in Birr is to come by car.

Coming from Zürich or Bern on the A1, take the Mägenwil / Birr exit and follow the Lenzburgerstrasse past the roundabout to the first set of traffic lights. Turn right there and cross the bridge over the railway tracks in a long left-hand curve until you come to Zentralstrasse. You will see the ALSTOM site on your left. Carry on straight ahead for another 300 m until you come to the gatehouse 1. There you can park your car and announce your arrival.

Coming from Basle on the A3, take the «Birr / Lupfig» exit. At the first set of traffic lights, turn left into Lenzburgerstrasse, and carry on to the second set of traffic lights. Turn left there and cross the bridge over the railway tracks in a long left-hand curve until you come to Zentralstrasse. You will see the ALSTOM site on your left. Carry on straight ahead for another 300 m until you come to the gatehouse 1. There you can park your car and announce your arrival.
